

Housewives Are Warned To Check Sweet Potatoes

County Agricultural Commission is asking housekeepers, storekeepers and others who may have in their possession sweet potatoes purchased since the first of June, to examine them to determine if the sweet potatoes are infested with weevils.

The commissioner asked all persons who find their sweet potatoes to be infested to report to his office, or to the local agricultural inspector, at once.

Cooperating with the Bureau of Entomology and Plant Quarantine of the State Department of Agriculture, the commission said that if weevils are found they may be sweet potato weevils, a serious pest in certain Southern states but not generally established in California.

The State Department of Agriculture informed the commission that it suspects that sweet potato weevils may have been brought into California in parts of recent shipments from out of state areas presumed to be free from the pest and from lots so certified.

Information as to the discovery of weevil infested sweet potatoes will assist the State Department of Agriculture and the County Agricultural Commissioner's office in protecting sweet potato growers of California against the establishment of this serious agricultural pest in California.

Visiting Hours To Boulder Dam Are Extended

With vacation travel once more at prewar levels, visitors' hours have been extended at Boulder Dam in order to handle more adequately the increasing flow of visitors to this world-famed reclamation project. Through the remainder of the summer months the dam will be open to visitors between the hours of 8:30 a. m. and 7:15 p. m.

The earlier opening hour was made necessary due to the increased flow of traffic during the morning hours.

Daily averages for the month of June have reached 1300 per day, and the vacation season does not reach its peak until the months of July and August.

Since reopening Boulder Dam to visitors last September, more than 215,000 persons have taken the guided tour of the project. Every indication points to this year establishing an all-time high in number of visitors. Previous high was established in 1941 with more than 370,000 persons conducted through the dam and power plant by the Bureau of Reclamation guide service.

And I will pray the Father, and he shall give you another Comforter, that he may abide with you for ever: Even the Spirit of truth; whom I will not leave you comfortless: I will come to you. . . . These things have I spoken unto you, being yet present with you. But the Comforter, which is the Holy Ghost, whom the Father will send in my name, he shall teach you all things, and bring all things to your remembrance, whatsoever I have said unto you."
